SUBJECT: DEALING WITH LAYOFFS—RESOURCES FOR EMPLOYERS

In August the Department of Labor put together a package called “Dealing With Layoffs—Resources for Employers.” The Workforce Investment Division (WID) forwarded copies of these packages to all local area administrators. We understand that this package was found to be a useful and excellent tool in aiding worker and employers dealing with layoffs. In fact, WID received many requests for these packages and has forwarded hundreds more to Local Workforce Investment Areas. There has also been a good response from the Rapid Response Roundtable meetings. The overall feeling is that this package has excellent short summaries of employment and training tools and services.

Due to the strong interest, we have attached PDF files so you can produce enough copies of the package to meet local needs. Local printing companies can use these files to reproduce the documents.

If you have any questions, please contact Carrie Sailors at csailors@edd.ca.gov or (916) 651-8211.
